Tipping & Donations Advice; Bhutan Visitor Guide & Tour Terms & Conditions.

BHUTAN TIPPING & CURRENCY GUIDE:

As per the latest recommendations from Bhutan you could consider the following as a minimum for tipping your guide and driver. You are welcome to tip a little higher if you feel it appropriate. Please note you will have one guide and one driver.

We recommend you arrange your tips, in USD cash, before leaving Australia and put guide and drivers tips into two separate envelopes and hand them to Gina or Helen on the final afternoon, being Wed 03 July.

- Tip your coach driver US$25 per person
- Tip your guide US$30 per person

The currency in Bhutan is called Ngultrum, or NU for short. The Nu is pegged to the same value as the India Rupee (INR). At 01AUG 2023 the exchange rate between USD and INR is 80. So USD1.00 = INR 80 and therefore NU 80. There is no begging in Bhutan and generally no other tipping aside from your guide & driver. If you feel a hotel porter (often younger ladies) has performed beyond expectations, a small tip of 40NU per bag (approx USD.50c per bag) would be appropriate.

DONATIONS AT TEMPLES (LHAKHANGS):

Lhakhangs are found all over Bhutan. Some are stand alone and others are in Monasteries and Dzongs. It is customary to make a small donation in each Lhakang and there is usually a plate/container visible for this purpose. The donation should be between 50 and 100 NU per person, or 1 USD pp. It is quite ok for one tour member to put in more, say US$5 to cover the donations for a number of other tour members.

BHUTAN VISITOR GUIDE:

Thank you for carefully reviewing our Bhutan Visitor Guide.

This will greatly enhance the enjoyment of your Bhutan experience and we keep it regularly updated. A copy of this Visitor Guide will also be available to you in the 'Documents' section of our travel app COMPANION.

BHUTAN & BEYOND TERMS & CONDITIONS:

It is essential you read & understand these T&C before committing to join this tour. This information is for your own financial protection.

Consider the option to take the nearby Kuenselphodrang National Park hike. It is rated EASY (approx 3 kms/1 hr). Next visit the 'Simply Bhutan' traditional display village, described as a 'living museum', and where you can witness traditional Bhutanese village life; engage in ara tasting (local spirit) & suja tasting (butter tea) and try your hand at archery. Friday 28 June:

Thimphu to Punakha Valley (3+ hrs)

7.00am -8.30am - Integrative Himalayan Yoga

Includes Breathwork-Pranayama “Kriya Yoga” which may include mantra & mudras, Asana (gentle yoga flow-“Vinyasa” or traditional holding poses-“Hatha”)

After breakfast, transfer by road eastwards across the Dochu La (pass 3116 m) to the Punakha Valley. En-route pass the Semtokha Dzong, built in 1629 and once the oldest fortress of its kind that guarded the Thimphu valley and today it is a monastery. Stop at Dochu La to view the 108 Stupas that were erected in 2005 as a memorial for the Bhutanese soldiers and Indian separatists who died during a short war of ‘eviction’ in 2003.

On arrival in the Punakha Valley take a quick wander through the Mesina markets before lunch in a local restaurant. Next visit Chimi Lhakhang, a monastery built by Lama Drukpa Kuenley (also known as the Divine Madman) with a very colourful history. The Lhakhang is a pleasant 20 minute walk each way through the rice paddies to the temple. It is believed that childless women who visit the temple will conceive after receiving a “wang” (blessing) from the resident Monk.

Finally, time permitting, visit the Sangchen Dorji Lhuendrup Lhakhang & Nunnery before check-in at your hotel.

4.30pm-6.00pm - Restorative Yoga “relaxed stretching”, body, mind awareness, May include guided meditation or Yoga Nidra “The sleep of the Yogi”. A deeply relaxing guided meditation that is traditional to the Himalayas.

After a relaxed breakfast, drive to Bhutan's longest suspension bridge for a scenic short walk to the very impressive Punakha Dzong, which previously served as the seat of the government. Punakha Dzong is still the winter residence of the Dratshang (Central Monk Body) and holds the title as the winter capital because of its more temperate climate. This Dzong is an excellent example of how an ancient building, that houses both monastic and administrative operations, can exist successfully in the modern world.

This afternoon take the option for some time at leisure to relax and enjoy the spa facilities at the hotel. Alternatively enjoy a fascinating hike through fields and small hamlets to Khamsum Yulley Namgyel Chorten. This beautiful structure was built by the current King's mother for his protection from evil. The hike (approx 50 m) is well recommended for those with moderate fitness.

There is no yoga practice this morning as we take an early breakfast before assembling for the Taktsang Monastery (Tigers Nest) pilgrimage walking meditation hike at 8 am. Taktsang is one of Bhutan’s most sacred sites and all Bhutanese Buddhists try and make this pilgrimage at least once in their lives, with each step along the trail accruing merit points for their next life. The 5-hours round trip hike can be quite strenuous in places and at least moderate fitness is required.
